BOWLS NEWS

From the Editor

From replies received so far the Club Newsletter has been well received. Once the club is back to bowls we will include weekly results, team selections and game reports in addition to other regular features. Again I stress we need input from you, the members to make this a worthwhile publication.

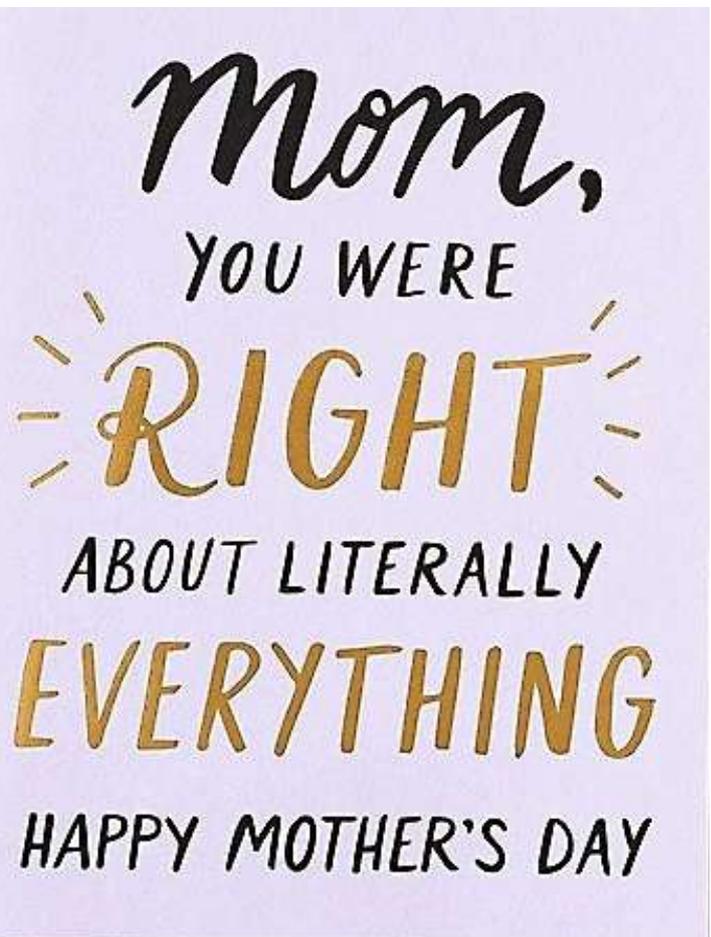

Thanks to Judy Peard for the Ladies contributions.

Men's President, Darren Colburn is doing a fantastic job collating the myriad of Covid 19 advices and how they affect our club.

CORONAVIRUS WEEK 6

Easing of restrictions in some area's Family picnics, 50km radius drives and shopping expeditions among them.

Ladies Bowls News

We encourage those with internet access to watch international, national and state championship events on You Tube, as well as checking on to Bowls Australia for live streaming of events. Also, The Bowls Show on Channel 72 on Sundays.

We are planning a special Afternoon Tea once we are back, with the ladies trying some interesting plates highlighting the colour of their bowls.

For exercise I suggested a half hour's walk each day, 15 leg lunges every day and balancing on one leg whilst cleaning your teeth.

(A bit harder than it sounds – try it!).

What a different way of celebrating Anzac Day , standing on our driveways in remembrance of our fallen heroes.

We may be able to use each members talents in some way like IT help, Musical skills, Cooking expertise, Poetic and Literary talents or Art and Craft exhibits. Please forward idea's.

Till we meet again on the Green, my regards to you all, and keep safe.

FROM THE LADIES GAMES DIRECTORS

Over the past six weeks, I have been keeping our members up to date with Information and endeavouring to keep us all motivated during this trying time. No doubt some of you can remember the 2nd World War years and the recovery afterwards, but the rest of us have never been through such a restrictive and frightening time.

Before we were shut down, we were able to complete our Club Singles Championship with our congratulations going to Jan Hagan (Pictured) as the winner, with Jean Rynne a very worthy runner-up.

Until all restrictions are lifted our planned events such as the Annual Fiesta on 30th June, and Spring Medley in September are uncertain. Also there is doubt we will be able to complete the club championship Pairs, Triples and Fours. But, our Social Bowls days will be geared up and running as soon as we have the Green Light!

A POEM BY LIN SARJEANT

We just went down to Woollies and it's much the same in Coles
Some Supermarket bullies are stockpiling toilet rolls

They're rushing and they're racing, even wrestling in the aisles
So much for Social Spacing, they've been bussing in for miles

We have to fight the Virus, that's a fact well understood
With loo rolls to inspire us ?? Have to wonder how they would
One's comfort is an issue, there can be but little doubt
But hoarding two ply tissue's not what this is all about

I hesitate to mention, but it's not so long ago
Since the wonderful invention of the product we now know
Once in the outside dunny hung newspaper on a string
And we never thought it funny, that was quite the usual thing

The things we find essential are much different nowadays
And some things spark potential for the panic buying craze
To be a True Blue Buyer some constraints we must observe
Yet keep on climbing up higher - till we flatten out this curve

From the Men's Games Director

With luck we should be back into Championship singles soon ! I will advise details as soon as possible.

Club Pairs should also be possible in June so it would be great if you could nominate your teams by email to me now so we can start getting organised.

COPING WITH CORONAVIRUS

The Queensland Chief Health Officer's (CHO's) Home Confinement, Movement and Gathering Direction has been amended to allow for recreation within a 50km radius of the person's principal place of residence.

Recreation means an activity engaged in for pleasure or for mental health benefits, including having a picnic in a park or public space that are allowed to remain open.

The CHO's direction for non-essential business, activity and undertaking closures has not changed as a result of these relaxations.

This means how you can currently trade has not changed.

If you're currently permitted to sell takeaway food and alcohol, it still can't be consumed inside or adjacent to the venue, regardless of the size of your outdoor area.

The limited easing of some home confinement and movement restrictions for public areas, such as parks, do not extend to licensed premises and adjacent areas.

With restrictions around some outdoor activities being relaxed, it's also important to remind your patrons who purchase takeaway alcohol from your venue that in Queensland drinking alcohol in a public place is illegal and on-the-spot fines apply. The only exceptions are 'wet areas' designated by a local council, normally for particular occasions such as a wedding in a park.

The strong message to patrons purchasing alcohol is to 'take-home'.

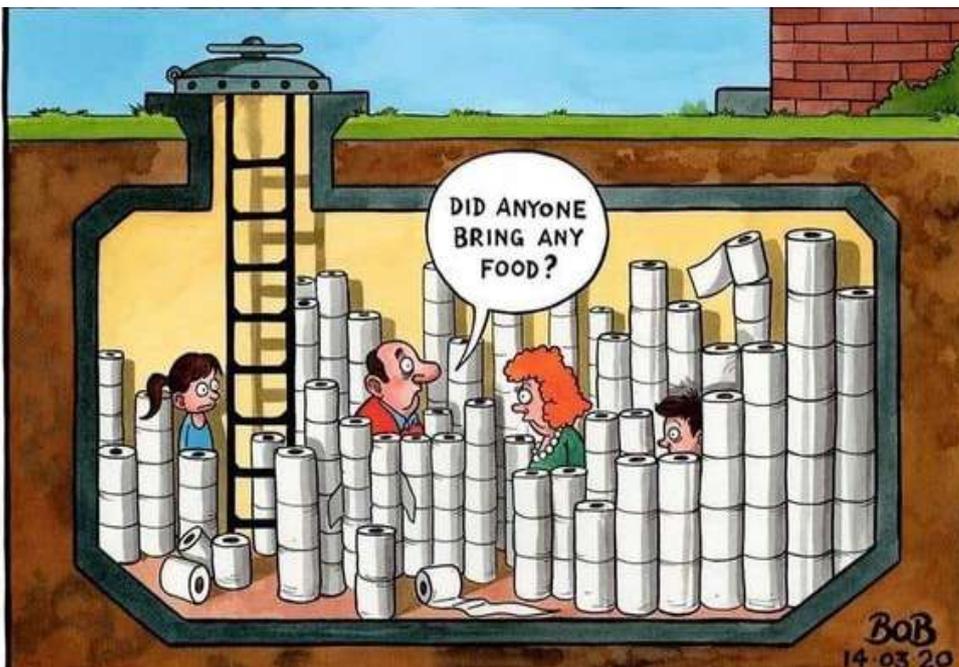

Compliance officers from the Office of Liquor and Gaming Regulation (OLGR) will be working closely with the Queensland Police Service to ensure compliance with existing CHO restrictions.

Lucky we can still put the boat in and go fishing, this is one thing that has kept me sane. Some good catches around in the Maroochy river. Stay well and look forward to bowling soon.

Cheers and best wishes

RECIPES

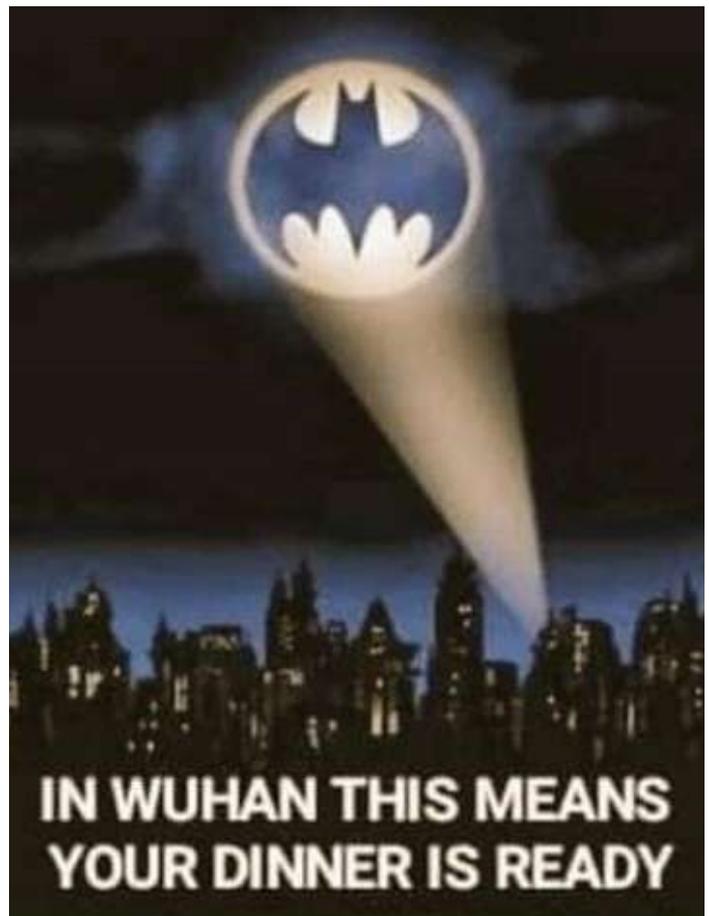

I have started the recipe column off with a couple of examples to get you all started and hopefully keen to respond.

Just send me a recipe you find that a lot of your family and friends enjoy and I will publish it for all to try.

What better way to overcome the isolation than to try some new recipes.

If you do in fact give them a go I am certain we would all like to know how it went. Therefore you should also send me your comments about the recipe you tried and any variations you may have included in them.

My wife needs to fill some of her time, so bring it on!!!

WE WERE MONKEYS

A child asked his father, "How were people born?" So his father said, "Adam and Eve made babies, then their babies became adults and made babies, and so on." The child then went to his mother, asked her the same question and she told him, "We were monkeys then we evolved to become like we are now." The child ran back to his father and said, "You lied to me!" His father replied, "No, your mom was talking about her side of the family."

GOD IS WATCHING

In a Catholic school cafeteria, a nun places a note in front of a pile of apples, "Only take one. God is watching." Further down the line is a pile of cookies. A little boy makes his own note, "Take all you want. God is watching the apples."

A Classic Pam Ayres

I love to meet my mates
But lately with the virus here
We can't go out the gates.
You see, we are the 'oldies' now
We need to stay inside
If they haven't seen us for a while
They'll think we've upped and died.
They'll never know the things we did
Before we got this old
There wasn't any Facebook
So not everything was told.
We may seem sweet old ladies
Who would never be uncouth
But we grew up in the 60s -
If you only knew the truth!
There was sex and drugs and rock 'n roll
The pill and miniskirts
We smoked, we drank, we partied
And were quite outrageous flirts.
Then we settled down, got married
And turned into someone's mum,
Somebody's wife, then nana,
Who on earth did we become?
We didn't mind the change of pace
Because our lives were full
But to bury us before we're dead
Is like a red rag to a bull!
So here you find me stuck inside
For 4 weeks, maybe more
I finally found myself again
Then I had to close the door!
It didnt really bother me
I'd while away the hour
I'd bake for all the family
But I've got no flaming flour!
Now Netflix is just wonderful
I like a gutsy thriller
I'm swooning over Idris
Or some random sexy killer.
At least I've got a stash of booze
For when I'm being idle
There's wine and whiskey, even gin
If I'm feeling suicidal!
So let's all drink to lockdown
To recovery and health
And hope this awful virus
Doesn't decimate our wealth.
We'll all get through the crisis
And be back to join our mates
Just hoping I'm not far too wide
To fit through the flaming gates!
